

FREE YOUR WORKPLACE FROM COVID-19

The unexpected COVID-19 outbreak poses a challenge to workplace safety that has never been previously encountered. How safe is your workplace? Are your employees well-protected? Is your workplace ready to operate in the 'new normal'?

Why Should You Test Your Workplace?

People who show no symptoms could be spreading the disease unknowingly

To make sure that your premises are free of COVID-19

To be certain that your sanitation precautions are sufficient

To rule out the need of screening every single employee

Who Would Benefit from This Test?

Manufacturing plants

Hotels

Shopping malls

Banks

Any offices
